Digital Works May Graduate Newsletter

Digital Works, an initiative of Connected Nation, Inc., helps connect people to twenty-first century jobs by offering customer service and technology training, while utilizing broadband technology for inbound customer service for global corporations. The training provides continued mentoring with opportunities for advanced placement for upward mobility. This is work that can be done from home or at the Digital Works center. The program, launched in June 2013 in Ohio, has already placed more than 400 Ohioans into jobs.
