CONNECTING PEOPLE & JOBS

November 2015

Graduate Spotlight

After working years at a job that required a daily commute of more than 45 minutes one way, Jackie was laid off. She graduated the Digital Works program in Logan and no longer has a lengthy commute. Jackie works from home, sets her own schedule, and is providing for her family.

“I love working at home,” said Jackie. “I get to work in a t-shirt and shorts.”

Quarterly Report

The Digital Works program in Ohio is largely funded by the Ohio Development Services Agency (DSA). Each quarter, a report is submitted to DSA detailing program results. During the third quarter of 2015, Digital Works facilities boasted a 95% graduation rate, creating 53 new in-demand jobs in Ohio communities.

Connecting Senior Adults With Flexible, Work-at-Home
Careers

Many seniors have found success through the opportunities provided by Digital Works. After securing an online position, they are able to work from the comfort of their own home, work part time, choose their work hours, and supplement their incomes. Hear from Patricia and Joyce, two Digital Works senior graduates enjoying their work-at-home flexibility, in these videos.
