CONNECTING PEOPLE & JOBS

October 2015

NANODEGREE

SCHOLARSHIPS
AVAILABLE

Graduate Spotlight

Joel says she bounced from job to job, even despite having a degree in medical coding. Full-time jobs required too many hours and a strict schedule, while part-time jobs didn't pay enough for her to support her family.

"I've gone two to three years without finding a job," said Joel. "Now, I'm an independent contractor with LiveOps and for NexRep."
